The Association of the Vocational Education Centres (ZZDZ) is a non-govermental educational organisation which consists of 24 regional Vocational Education Centres.
ZZDZ as a nationwide network of educational institutions constitutes the most well-developed wide-ranging network of non-public educational institutions in Poland comprising:

- Schools
  for teenagers and adults

- Training Centres
  offering courses and seminars

- Training workshops
  conducting practical apprenticeship and improving vocational skills
The Vocational Education Centre Network:

- 4 colleges
- 8,989 students
- 456 schools for teenagers and adults
- 28,607 pupils and students
- 250 vocational education and training institutions
- 350 specialistic laboratories
- 233,808 trained on courses
- 17,658 courses and seminars annually
- 1,223 own up-to-dated teaching programmes with a module structure

[ data for 2010 ]
ZZDZ on the educational market – what makes us a distinguished school

• Quality Policy
  implemented and well-functioning management system based on ISO Standards, Accreditation of The Education Authority Head and branch units for different activity areas, awards and prizes for the pro-quality educational policy.

• Teaching Staff
  lecturers with high professional and pedagogical qualifications having practical experience and continuously improving their qualifications.

• Apprenticeship and vocational training
  Vocational trainings in the renowned enterprises of different sector, as well as school labs and workshops.

• Premises and facilities own school facilities, specialistic laboratories for different purposes with a modern technical and teaching equipment, unique curricula.
ZZDZ on the educational market – what makes us a distinguished school

• Awards, Distinctions, Certificates
  students who have passed their final exams can obtain a certificate confirming their professional qualifications in the jobs wanted on the UE labour market. Those interested in working in other countries of European Union are entitled to be granted a TUV certificate confirming a quality monitoring of the course.

• Innovations
  knowledge and ongoing monitoring of the labour market as well as vivid reactions for its needs, continuous investment in the development of the laboratories, certificates and diplomas translated into different languages, benefiting from the European Union Funds for Human Resources Development.

• Experience
  nearly 100 years on the educational market, recognition and a high reputation among customers and various organisations, cooperation with different departments, offices and institutions, influence on the educational provisions.
ZZDZ on the educational market – what makes us a distinguished school

- Counselling and Guidance active actions in the area of vocational counselling also for unemployed and disabled

- International Cooperation
  undertaking joint initiatives with foreign partners, students exchange, internships abroad, conferences and training trips.

We provide individualised learning opportunities. Thanks to the European Union Funds for education we are able to offer attractive discounts, competitive prices and exemption from fees.
"from driving license to welder with European certificate, from tiler to computer network administrator, from certificate of completion of the basic vocational school to MA degree"

- The quotation above presents the scale of different educational opportunities to improve qualifications offered by the network of the Vocational Education Centres.
Welcome to our Education Centres